

Sightseeing Suggestions

Start exploring! Visit Seattle or Portland, and remember to enjoy some of the many landmarks and recreational and cultural attractions the south Puget Sound region has to offer. “Experience Washington” is the official Web site of Washington State Tourism and can be found at www.experiencewashington.com.

In Olympia

The Olympia Farmers Market—(360) 352-9096, www.farmers-market.org

Washington Center for the Performing Arts—(360) 753-8585, www.washingtoncenter.org

Washington State Capitol Campus and Legislature—(360) 586-8687

Percival Landing Park

Capital Lake Park

Priest Point Park

Note: Historical information about Olympia can be found through the

Thurston Regional Planning Council (TRPC) at www.trpc.org/external/programs/historic+preservation/olyhistoric/index.htm

In Tacoma

Broadway Center for the Performing Arts—(253) 591-5894, www.broadwaycenter.org

Museum of Glass—1-866- 468-7386, www.museumofglass.org

Point Defiance Park—(253) 305-1000

Point Defiance Zoo and Aquarium—(253) 591-5337, www.pdza.org

Tacoma Art Museum—(253) 272-4258, www.tacomaartmuseum.org

Tacoma Dome—(253) 272-3663, www.tacomadome.org

Tacoma Farmers Market—www.tacomafarmersmarket.com

Narrows Bridge

Ruston Way, two-mile waterfront walking path

Within a two-hour drive

Fort Lewis Military Museum—(253) 582-5838, www.lewis.army.mil/DPTMS/POMFI/museum.htm

Mount Rainier National Park—(360) 569-2211, www.mount.rainier.national-park.com

Mount St. Helens National Volcanic Monument—(360) 449-7800, www.fs.fed.us/gpnf/mshnvm

Olympic Peninsula/Olympic National Park—(360) 565-3130, www.nps.gov/olym/home.htm

Nisqually National Wildlife Refuge—(360) 753-9467, nisqually.fws.gov

EVERGREEN

2700 Evergreen Pkwy NW • Olympia, WA 98505
(360) 867-6170 • www.evergreen.edu